BLOCKADE BROKEN ON SALT LAKE ROUTE

Salt Lake, Feb. 23.—The Salt Lake Route, the worst hit of the Utah railroads during the past few days, as the result of snowdrifts and snowdrifts, had a toss-up with the elements yesterday and won a partial victory. By breaking through the blockade of snow that had tied the line up west of Payson the company was enabled to move its three marooned trains out of Lynndyl and bring them into Salt Lake by way of Provo.

Traffic is still suspended, however, on the other line, which runs from Salt Lake to Lynndyl by way of Eureka. The passenger train which had been stalled at Faust for nearly two days was dug out by a rotary yesterday morning, but when it got within a few miles of Eureka it was stopped by another big slide and was unable to proceed farther. The rotary also carried food from Salt Lake to the marooned passengers.

BEARDS ARE WORN BY THE ARMY MEN

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 22.—Beards are again being worn by many of the fighting men of the United States army on the Mexican border. Officers and enlisted men of the Pershing Punitive Expedition are responsible. When General Pershing's troops marched out of Mexico to the tune of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" many of the veterans of the Mexican campaign wore full beards.

Leading the Seventh cavalry, Custer's old command, across the border was Colonel Selah R. H. Tompkins wearing a bushy beard combed straight out from his chin and with waxed and pointed mustaches. As he saluted his commanding officer, the famous cavalry commander was cheered by the crowds in Columbus.

One enlisted man marched with the 16th Infantry wearing a long black beard and leading a Scotch collie dog by a leash. Many boys in the column wore their first beard and the full beard has become a mark of distinction for the punitive expedition troops. The national guard troops have adopted the custom and many beards may be seen in the militia camps. The fact that El Paso barbers increased their rates to twenty-five cents for a shave and fifty cents for a haircut stimulated interest in the new army style and a barber boycott had been started in one militia regiment.

MORE TIME FOR THE LIQUOR MEN

Proposal Made to Delay the Date of the 'Bone-Dry' Measure.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Postponement of the effective date of the "bone dry" prohibition amendment to the post-October 1, 1917, is proposed in a concurrent resolution introduced late today by Representative Moon of Tennessee, chairman of the postoffice committee. Mr. Moon announced that he would press it through as soon as the postoffice bill itself is finally disposed of.

During the debate on the amendment in the house there were urgent appeals that liquor dealers be given time to dispose of stocks and readjust their business. Prohibition leaders turned deaf ears then, fearing that any change in the provision as it passed the senate might mean its defeat, but many are disposed to vote for a postponement once the bill has been sent to the president for his signature.

The preamble of Chairman Moon's resolution says: "The states which have passed laws prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors and the storing of the same within their borders have recognized the fact that such business, therefore, has been and will be, in view of this, by their enactments given to dealers a reasonable time within which to dispose of their stock or remove the same from the states before the becoming effective of such laws. The course followed in this respect is clearly right and just, and it would be a manifest injustice and would work a great hardship on the federal government to deprive these parties of the rights guaranteed by the states, by immediate denial of interstate commerce for the shipment of such liquors, which effect will, in its present aspect, automatically follow the enactment of the prohibition amendment."

WOMEN! TRY IT! SAVE 5 DOLLARS

Says gasoline and solvite in washboiler dry cleans everything.

Ever dry clean at home? Well, it's so easy, inexpensive and the results so pleasing you'll be surprised. Any woman can clean and renew the brightness of ribbons, silks, satins, lace, sashes, silk shirtwaists, kid gloves and shoes, furs, neckties, children's coats, suits, caps, swiss, lawn, organdy and chiffon dresses, fancy vests, veils, woolen garments, net-work, draperies, rugs, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined with soap and water.

Get two ounces of solvite in any drug store and put it in two gallons of gasoline where it quickly dissolves. Then put in the goods to be cleaned, rub a little and out they come looking as bright and fresh as new. You will find nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles, requiring no pressing.

Any woman can do five dollars' worth of home dry cleaning in a few moments and you can't make a mistake. Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and the drug store will sell you two ounces of solvite which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dish pan completes your dry-cleaning outfit.

LINER CELTIC HAS BEEN DAMAGED

New York, Feb. 22.—Reports that the big White Star liner Celtic had hit a mine February 14, and was towed back into Liverpool in a damaged condition were brought here today by passenger on the American line steamship Philadelphia, also from that port.

The Philadelphia, the passenger said, sailed about thirty minutes after the Celtic and the British steamship Canada, a troop ship. Wireless calls from the Celtic asking for aid are said to have been picked up by the radio operators on the American liner, which, however, did not respond as the Canada was already reported to have reached here. The Celtic, it was said, towed the Celtic back to Liverpool.

An effort was made to keep the report secret for fear of alarming the Philadelphia's passengers, but it leaked out after the danger zone had been passed.

The Celtic, it was believed, carried no passenger. Officers of the Philadelphia declined to discuss the report today under plea of neutrality restrictions forbidding them to talk. It was said here by officials of the White Star Line that no word had been received of the accident. The Celtic is a vessel of 20,904 tons and was last reported as having arrived in Liverpool on an unnamed date after leaving here on January 21.

New York, Feb. 22.—All the passenger ships of the American line now are believed to be safely away from the European war zone. Five of them are tied up at their piers here, while the other, the Finland, it was said tonight, probably would arrive here Sunday or Monday. The vessels here are the Philadelphia, St. Louis, St. Paul, New York and Kroonland.

While no advice of the Finland's sailing from Liverpool, where she was last officially reported, has been made public, passengers arriving from Liverpool today said it was understood she was to sail from there last Saturday.

COLONIES LOST BY THE KAISER

Germany Will Never Recover the Territory Taken During the War.

London, Feb. 22. (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The death knell to Germany's colonial possessions has been sounded, so far as the entente allies can effect that result. By the almost simultaneous announcement of the British minister of colonies, Mr. Long, the Japanese minister of foreign affairs, Mr. Motono and the prime minister of New Zealand, Mr. Massey, who voiced the view of Australia as well as New Zealand. Together these statements declare there will be no return to Germany of her colonies in Africa, Asia or the Pacific.

This attitude is not only held by Japan and the British colonies chiefly concerned, but it has the backing of the British and French governments, which have the largest interest in colonial Africa and Asia. It develops the fact also that the late Asquith government was opposed to any extension of British colonial possessions in Africa, whereas the new Lloyd George government approves this extension as in line with the aspirations of the British colonies in Africa. This in turn has established that there will be a general reshuffling of African colonies, so that the possessions of England, France, Portugal and Belgium will be made more homogeneous instead of being scattered and irregular in outline, as at present.

Japan Wants Kiau Chau.
Japan's attitude toward holding the German colony of Kiau Chau in China and the Pacific islands occupied by the Japanese fleet, came up when the French draft of the reply to President Wilson was being debated in the various entente governments for approval. Japan approved the terms as far as stated on Serbia, Belgium, and in other respects, but pointed out that the terms omitted any reference to the German colonies in Kiau Chau and the Pacific islands, in which Japan had established an interest.

France and England thereupon replied to Japan that it had been deemed desirable in answering Mr. Wilson's request for terms, not to make these terms embrace everything which might come up later, but to confine them for the present to the readjustment of territory in Europe. Later on, it was pointed out, the future of German territorial possessions outside Europe would be considered, so that Japan's rights would be properly safeguarded and secured for future determination. This was satisfactory to Japan, which gave approval to the joint reply to Mr. Wilson, stating the allies' main terms.

The Japanese embassy has given Japan's understanding of the arrangement as stated by Foreign Minister Motono.

He said: "The absence of any allusion to the future disposal of the German colonies has justly attracted the attention of the public in Japan. That point, however, has never escaped the attention of the imperial government. The reply to the American note does not certainly contain all the conditions of peace to be demanded by the allied powers. They reserve the right to present these conditions when the terms of peace are discussed. Reference is made to this point in the note to the United States. In order to avoid all misunderstandings, we took steps to safeguard our right, when we addressed our adhesion to the draft by the French government and I am happy to say that a satisfactory understanding exists among all the allies on this point."

"Let me make plain that their struggles for these colonies have been in vain. Let no man think that these colonies will ever return to the German rule. It is impossible. Our overseas empire will not tolerate any suggestion of the kind. We have been able to rectify mistakes since the war began and it now rests with the people of this country to help to an early and satisfactory peace and to take care that they prepare before the war ends to face that other bitter and ruthless contest in trade and commerce which will follow hereafter."

ENGAGEMENTS ON WAR FRONTS

Small engagements by raiding and reconnoitering parties and reciprocal bombardments, which are of considerable intensity at various points, are still going on in all the war theatres. Nowhere has a big engagement taken place.

The Germans in Belgium near Roodpoort and in the east of Flanders and south of Neuve Chapelle, made thrusts with raiding parties against the entente lines, but, according to both Paris and London, they were repulsed with losses.

Russia successful raids by the Germans in Galicia, near Zloczoff, where 250 Russians were taken prisoner, and small attacks in the wooded Carpathian mountains, with the advantage resting with the Austro-Germans, are related in the German official communication. In the latter region, however, Petrograd claims a repulse by the Russians of the Teutonic allies near Dornawatra.

In Rumania a heavy snowstorm is hampering operations. Considerable artillery activity continues on the Macedonian front, where trench raiding operations also are being carried out. The latest reports from London and Paris show that vessels of an aggregate tonnage of more than 21,000 have been sent to the bottom by submarines or mines. The vessels sunk were four British steamers and a trawler, one Russian, one Swedish, one Dutch and one Norwegian. The Swedish steamer had several Americans aboard. All of them and the remainder of the crew were rescued.

Board of Trade Protests.
Chicago, Feb. 22.—When shown the statement of the car service committee of the American Railway association to the effect that Chicago grain shippers have been receiving 200 cars a day, J. P. Griffin, president of the board of trade, said:

"For 30 days Chicago has been shipping four or five cars a day; that's all. We had, it is true, cars of western road to load, but we couldn't get them hauled east. Now we are informed that we must get our cars from eastern roads. That practically shuts us out of the eastern market entirely."

The board was closed today but Mr. Griffin, traffic experts and lawyers continued in conference on the situation.

TURKS ARE HELD ON TIGRIS RIVER

British Tie Up Large Forces in the Drive on Kut-el-Amara.

London, Feb. 22, 3:30 p. m.—The present British operations in the far east are having a definite effect on the general situation by preventing the Turks from sending forces to join their allies on the European fronts, according to General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office. In his weekly review of military movements, given to the Associated Press today.

Our recent operations at Kut-el-Amara and on the Sinai peninsula, said General Maurice, "are having an important bearing upon the general situation by reversing the condition prevailing last year, when our failures gave the Turks a chance to send troops to their allies on the eastern front. The conditions now are reversed. The Turks are not only unable to dispatch such reinforcements to Europe, but are compelled to draw on their available resources to enable them to hold their position in the Kut-el-Amara and Sinai fields of operation."

General Maude, at Kut-el-Amara, has been making a wide swing with his left, pivoting on his right, which remains stationary at Samarra. His advance has been steady, resulting in the taking of line after line of Turkish trenches, followed by the successful action at Debra, when the big bend in the Tigris was cleared of the enemy. We are now in a position to invest Kut-el-Amara.

"On the right, at Samarra, the Turks occupy a narrow front protected by the river on one flank and by a marsh on the other, so that a few machine guns can play havoc with an attacking force. Therefore, our advance there may be held up for some time."

"In the Sinai region we have been successful in clearing out several posts that the Turks attempted to reoccupy."

"Feeling the necessity of at least holding their own at Kut-el-Amara and Sinai, the Turks have stopped troop movements toward Europe and are sending all possible reinforcements to the threatened points."

We have had another week of raids on the western front, marked by the noteworthy fact that the Germans made a successful raid at Le Transloy (on the Somme front), where they took thirty-five prisoners, which is the best they have to show against our total capture of more than 2000 of their men."

ASSESSOR SANDERSON IS IN FAVOR OF INCOME TAX

Editor Standard: The tax question continues before the public most prominently at this time. The people responsible for the raising of revenue for this state are greatly concerned over the inability of our present laws to reach the mines and get from them their just portion of taxes. The fault lies in the fact that our laws were not made to expand to the present period of marked advance in the prosperity of such holdings.

It is a lamentable fact that much of the most taxable of all taxable property in this state is not bearing one cent of the tax burden; I refer to money, notes, mortgages, solvent credits, etc. These should be reached in one way or another to properly distribute the load which grows grievous and arduous on the honest man of small means. It is costing many people too much to live in their own homes. The tax of recent years has been too heavily entered, simply because there is so much property unjustly and dishonestly kept back and not listed. If all the money loaned and held by the fortunate capitalist was assessed in this county, there would be a great reduction in the levy and many would be relieved of the burden of excessive taxation.

The only way open at present to get the revenue justly due from the wise man of wealth who knows so well how to dodge the equity the state rightly holds in his earnings, is through the income tax, as it is so readily concealed after it enters his strong box. The income law would be just from every point of view. It would eliminate much of the deception and the false statements that are being made constantly as to holdings. There are many citizens of our state receiving large incomes, paid large salaries, renting homes or apartment houses, having every advantage a foreign state can give them, and yet they willfully, in the face of the law, refuse to add a penny to the revenue of the state absolutely necessary to maintain an efficient administration of the affairs of the state. This condition makes the burden unnecessarily heavy on the ordinary law-abiding, fair-minded citizen who is willing to carry his portion of the state expenses. You, the legal advisers and legislative bodies of the state, why not devise some way to reach Mr. Tax-Dodger and have him come through with his fair share of the needed revenues? The only clear way is to pass the income tax law to obtain a modest amount from this class of individuals whose wisdom and aptness in manipulating affairs catch in their confers a goodly share of the wealth of the state, and who should in all consistency bear their part of the tax burden and help maintain our many splendid state institutions.

Despite the lowering war cloud and the apparent need of the federal government having to look about for more revenues of revenue, it seems to me we should be put on a just and equitable basis for the future and have all classes of citizens contribute to the upkeep of the state and county.

If the income tax bill is passed, the new and better system of valuations can be followed and the spirit and letter of the law be adhered to; and greater efficiency and a more surer basis for fair dealing will be established, and order will soon come out of chaos—the cause of so much injustice manifest in the field of taxation.

Shall we overburden the toiling many to cater to the wealthy few, or deal unjustly with the honest to worm ourselves into the graces of the predaacious who are not dealing on the square on this problem.

Let us first protect our own, and deal justly with them, and afterward open every avenue to encourage investments and investors to come in where they will find fair dealings and just laws to protect them and aid them to intelligently place their money.

There should be a just standard of cash valuations on all real and personal property and a constant aim to reduce the levy, and an untiring effort to reach the untaxed property, thus relieving the overburdened ones.

The woods are full of orators and

A Medicine for Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Relieved the Sufferings of Women.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Mrs. Kieso Cured After Seven Month's Illness.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my house work, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for herself how good it is."—Mrs. KARL A. KIESO, 596 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

Could Hardly Get Off Her Bed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such bad health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I want you to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did, and it has certainly made me a well woman. I am able to do my house work and am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do again, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. JOSIE CORNER, 1608 Harrison Ave., Fairmont, Cincinnati, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

defenders of the large property holders and corporations when their interests are at stake; they come forth with strong arguments to maintain certain points, just or unjust. But who will design to speak for the poor and weak in power and purse? Too few, entirely; and those who have the courage must risk the bringing of the contempt of the egotistic who feels that the world was made for only such as he.

If we can advocate the income measure without offending our many friends whom it will touch, and defend the struggling toiler who finds it so hard to meet the current expenses of the simplest maintenance from month to month, we will have done a good turn, worthy of any man's effort.

This income law is based on the principle of strict, consistent revenue laws and lays the burden where it can best be borne, justly apportioned on the point of view that more of the resources of the state are commanded and controlled and homage is paid by the one receiving the big end of the profits on investments of the commonwealth, which in turn demand the attention and service of the public in institutions and revenues of the community, and should therefore contribute a goodly share to the upkeep of public affairs.

There are many thousands of dollars unlawfully concealed from tax collectors every year and not listed as it should be on our statement. What class of citizens thus hold out the challenge to the officials of the law to put them right if they can? Is it the man of modest means and small holdings, or the larger firms and corporations? The most favored and the greatest noise about the 100 per cent valuation are only in a very few cases will show their inventory or list their solvent credits and money.

On whom, then, should the responsibility rest as to the high taxes, and the questionable way in which many otherwise loyal citizens endeavor to hold out on a minimum figure, representing their valuations, and maximum on sales and transfers to the public at large? Let the one at fault face the matter squarely and be made the butt of our contentions until he comes from under cover and meets his fellows on a fair basis of honor on the tax question.

Respectfully,
(Signed) O. M. SANDERSON,
County Assessor.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind, I could not see to do anything. Now I can read fine print without glasses, and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multiplies their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothered, try even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good drug store and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in Ogden by the McIntyre Drug Co. and other drug stores.—Advertisement.
